

SENATORS NAMED.

A Number of Contests Decided in Caucus.

HILL SELECTED IN NEW YORK.

Daniel W. Voorhees Nominated to Succeed Himself by the Indiana Democrats—Caucus Selections in a Number of Other States.

ALBANY, Jan. 20.—The Democratic joint caucus to nominate a United States senator to succeed Senator Evarts, was called to order in the assembly chamber shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. All of the Democratic state officials and others were present.

Nominations being in order, Speaker Sheehan said: "The Democratic party to-day proposes to signalize the great victory of November by nominating for senator in congress a leader of genius and courage, a statesman of breadth and capacity, a man who more than any other contributed to Democratic supremacy. When victory seemed impossible, when defeat stared us in the face, there was one voice above all others that penetrated the heart of the American people who stood in the front of the battle, heedless of personal or political consequences, encouraging with his presence and convincing with his eloquent tongue the electorate of our land. It is only by rewarding men who battle for Democratic principles in darkness as well as in sunshine, that our party deserves to succeed."

After other speeches Mr. Sheehan moved Governor Hill's nomination by acclamation, which was carried, and the caucus adjourned.

It is said the real reason for Governor Hill's acceptance is that it was found that the Democrats could unite on nobody else and it was necessary to take the senatorship in order to save it.

There is no change in Assemblyman Nolan's condition. Denarest and Guntner are both here, so that if Mr. Nolan is unable to take part in the joint session the Democrats still have a working majority of 1.

William M. Evarts was renominated for senator by the Republican caucus yesterday.

Voorhees Renominated.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 20.—The caucus of the two parties to nominate candidates for the United States senate met last night. The Democrats nominated Senator Voorhees by acclamation. In the Republican caucus Governor Hovey was nominated on the fourth ballot by 22 out of 40 votes.

C. W. Fairbanks was the next leading candidate, while a few votes were cast for United States Treasurer Huston, John M. Butler, of this city, and R. W. McKeen, of Terre Haute. As the legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic the governor's nomination is purely complimentary. Balloting will take place on Wednesday.

In New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 20.—The Democratic senatorial caucus was held in Chase's hall last night. Hon. Harry Bingham, of Littleton, presiding. On taking the chair he announced he would not accept the nomination if it was tendered him. Thereupon Senator Sullivan presented the name of Hon. Charles H. Sinclair, of Portsmouth, and he was unanimously nominated as candidate for United States senator, to be supported in the legislature to-day.

In Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 20.—The Democratic caucus met last night, but voted to make no nomination for United States senator. This gives rise to the rumor that the attempt is to be made to trade against Mr. Platt. The senate has 10 Democratic majority and the house as it stands has 14 Republican majority. The Republicans renominated O. H. Platt some time ago.

In Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 20.—The Democrats of the house and senate, in joint caucus last night, chose Chauncey F. Black for United States senator.

Senator Teller Renominated.

DENVER, Jan. 20.—Henry H. Teller was unanimously nominated for United States senator by the Republican caucus yesterday.

An Old Lady Burned to Death.

DANVILLE, Ky., Jan. 20.—At Burgin, north of here, Sunday morning, Mrs. Lucy, wife of Rev. Strater Cook, went to sleep while reading a paper near an open fire, and the paper fell from her lap to the grate, igniting her clothing. The negro servant boy threw a bucket of water over her, but it did not save her. She lived but a few hours. She was 70 years old.

King Kalakaua Dying.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—King Kalakaua, of the Hawaiian Islands is lying at the point of death at the Palace hotel suffering from Bright's disease and uremia. The disease took a sudden turn for the worse yesterday and he has been in a semi-unconscious state ever since.

"DOC" WILSON DEAD.

Has Philip Moen's Secret Died With Him?

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 20.—Much excitement was caused in town yesterday by the circulation of the report that the famous "Doc" Levi Wilson, of Washburn-Moen fame, had been found dead in Arizona. The Arizona Republican, Saturday, published in Phoenix, contains an account of the finding of a corner's jury, which investigated the death of a glambler, known as "the New river crazy man." His body was found near Frog Tank, on the Aqua Fria, and the jury decided he was "Doc" Wilson, formerly of this place. He was five feet eight inches in height, with dark brown mustache, light blue eyes, scar on the neck and retreating chin. There was no clothing on the corpse but a ragged shirt and a pair of overalls.

The man had wandered around the desert for several days. It will be remembered that "Doc" Wilson, if this be he, eight years ago was the Monte Cristo of Rhode Island. Born of a low and obscure family in the village of Arnoldtown, Conn., passing his childhood in a cotton twine factory, his teens in a stable and his early manhood as a horse doctor and the landlord of a disreputable roadhouse near Providence, he was one of the richest men in New England. He spent money lavishly, bought fine horses and equipages, entertained the governors of the state, built a palatial hotel at Bridge, Mass., and after various intrigues with women, married the beautiful Miss Farnum, daughter of Caleb Farnum, one of the best known manufacturers of the Blackstone valley.

"Doc" was vulgar and ignorant, but he had plenty of money, the source of which for many years was a mystery. At length he began a suit against Philip L. Moen, the millionaire barbed wire manufacturer of Worcester. The secret, of course, of Wilson's great wealth was then revealed, for then it came out that Moen had from time to time paid "Doc" immense sums—for what reason Moen would never disclose. Wilson said he was Moen's son, that he was the rightful owner of a barbed wire patent, on which he was receiving an immense royalty, and so forth. After losing his suit against Moen the "Doc" attempted suicide. His wife secured a divorce and the custody of their two boys on the grounds of cruelty and other charges, and since then Wilson has been a wanderer, though a Providence man saw him in New York a year ago. He was still plentifully supplied with money.

ON THE FRONTIER.

Treacherous Whites Almost Cause Another Indian Outbreak.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 20.—When the treacherous whites in Bear Butte county wantonly murdered old Few Tails last week and wounded his squaw they committed an outrage that came near ruining Gen. Miles' plans and stampeding the 400 hostiles who are in camp. Few Tails was a relative of Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, the only hereditary chief in the Sioux nation and the most powerful leader among his people.

Few Tails' wounded squaw arrived here yesterday and almost instantly there was a commotion in the hostile camp. The scouts reported the situation to Gen. Miles, who immediately sent runners after Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses. When that chief appeared at headquarters and learned of the ingratitude of the whites for the heroic war he had been doing in their behalf he refused to be pacified, and it took all the diplomacy at the command of Gen. Miles to finally win back the good will of the outraged chief.

The situation has become so complicated that the quartermaster has ordered twenty days' additional rations, and the troops that were expected to come to the agency for a grand review have been ordered to remain in camp. This order for rations is as heavy as any that has been issued since the war began.

Few Tails was not only a relative of Young-Man-Afraid-of-His-Horses, but a brother of Big Road, one of the most powerful sub-chiefs at Pine Ridge. Big Road said yesterday that eighty cowboys had slaughtered the little band as they were returning, unarmed, from an eagle hunt, bearing with them Gen. Miles' pass permitting them to be on the reservation, and that the squaw of Few Tails was the only survivor.

HE WAS A HERO

Notwithstanding He Was Only a Brakeman—Peonish Fire.

DENVER, Jan. 20.—Two cars in a train on the Cheyenne and Northern railroad caught fire Saturday afternoon from sparks from the locomotive and an intervening car prevented the engineer and fireman from seeing the flames. The passengers were driven to rear coach. A brakeman named Anderson volunteered to warn the engineer, and at great peril crawled over the burning cars to front of train.

The engineer decided to make a quick run to the next water tank two miles distant. When the tank was reached both cars had been burned while the front of the passenger car was nearing destruction. Brakeman Anderson, who risked his life to save others, died from fatal burns.

A Farmer's Find.

CONNEERSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 20.—While Henry Reese was tearing down an old log stable on his farm, west of this city about four miles, he found stowed away a jewelry case containing a lady's gold watch and chain, pair of bracelets, breastpin and earrings, all in good state of preservation. They were of an old style and costly, and had probably been there for years.

DRESSED BEEF CASE.

Decision Rendered by the Supreme Court.

STATE'S RIGHTS INVOLVED.

One of Virginia's State Laws Declared Unconstitutional—A Much Litigated Question Finally Decided—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The supreme court of the United States yesterday rendered a decision in the habas corpus case of William Rebnan, of Norfolk, Va., in what is known as the dressed beef case, involving the constitutionality of the Virginia state law, which requires meats slaughtered a hundred miles or more from the place where it is offered for sale, to be inspected by the local inspector. The court decides that the state law is unconstitutional.

Rebnan was arrested and fined for having sold dressed beef, the property of Armour Company, of Chicago, in violation of this law. He refused to pay the fine and carried the case to the United States circuit court, where Judge Hughes granted a writ of habeas corpus. The case came to the United States supreme court on an appeal by the officer having Rebnan in charge, the sole question involved being whether the Virginia statute under which Rebnan was tried is repugnant to the constitution. The court held that it is, and affirmed Judge Hughes' decision ordering Rebnan's discharge.

The statute, the court holds, is in effect a prohibition upon the sale in Virginia of meats, although entirely wholesome, if slaughtered a hundred miles from the place of sale, as the inspection charge of one cent per pound prevents the owner from competing upon equal terms in the markets with those in the same business whose meats, slaughtered within one hundred miles of the place of sale, are not subjected to inspection.

A state, the court decides, may establish regulations for the protection of its people against the sale of unwholesome meats, but cannot under the guise of exercising its police powers, enact inspection laws which make discrimination against the products of its own or other states. The Virginia law, the court declares, is for all practical ends, a statute to prevent the citizens of distant states having for sale fresh meats, from coming into competition, upon terms of equality with local dealers in Virginia, and as such its repugnance to the constitution is manifest. Judge Hughes' action in the habas corpus matter is therefore affirmed.

Another Election Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Mr. Langston, of Virginia, introduced in the house yesterday a joint resolution to amend the Federal constitution in the matter of suffrage. The resolution provides: "That all elections for members of congress, senators of the United States and presidential electors shall be by the people of the states, under such laws as congress shall enact, provided that no elector shall be allowed to vote any such election who cannot read and write the English language, and the basis of representation in each state shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of those allowed to vote shall bear to the whole number of male citizens 21 years of age in such state." Congress is empowered to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. The bill was referred to the committee on election of the president, vice president and members of congress.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Most of the session of the house yesterday was taken up by the political speeches and assaults upon the speaker by the Democrats for past rulings. Only one bill of minor importance was passed, and at 5:20 the house adjourned.

In the senate yesterday an hour and a half was consumed discussing a point of order raised by Mr. Gorman, taking issue with the vice president's ruling last Friday, to the effect that an appeal from a decision of the chair on a non-debatable question, was itself not debatable. The matter was finally dropped, and after the introduction of a number of bills, the elections bill was taken up and Mr. George addressed the senate in opposition to the bill. Without finishing his speech, the senate at 6 o'clock adjourned.

Indians Not to Have Firearms.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A bill to prevent the sale of firearms and ammunition to Indians was introduced in the senate yesterday by Mr. Sanders. A penalty of imprisonment for not more than six months and a fine of $500 is provided for violations of the provisions of the bill. A proviso is appended that it shall be a defense for a defendant in any prosecution under the provisions of the bill to show that the Indian to whom firearms and ammunition were given had, at the time of the sale, severed his tribal relations and adopted the habits of civilized life.

One Good Indian Agent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Secretary Noble has received a communication from the Catholic missionaries at Standing Rock Agency commending his action in upholding Major James McLaughlin, the Indian agent there, who they assert has for many years led the Indians peaceably on the road to civilization and has won their confidence so thoroughly that no one would do better in his place. They strongly urge his retention. They report everything quiet among the Indians, who were well satisfied with their condition and treatment.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The senate yesterday confirmed the following nominations: J. W. Palmer, to be collector of customs, district of Bangor, Me., and E. H. Bryant, to be collector at Machias, Me.; Henry H. Swan, to be United States judge for the eastern district of Michigan; H. L. Simms to be postmaster at East Liverpool, O., also several army promotions.

In the Interest of Peace.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Indian commissioner Morgan says that the interior department will approve the recommendation of Gen. Miles that the Cheyenne Indians, now at Pine Ridge, be removed to their own reservation. The change will be made in the interest of peace.

THE FINDLAY WRECK.

Another Explosion Takes Place, but Not as Destructive as the First.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 20.—Coroner Howell yesterday began official investigation of the fearful explosion at the Hotel Marvin Sunday. Some sensational developments are expected as it is charged that there was criminal carelessness in looking for the leak in the pipes, and that the frightful explosion could have been avoided had ordinary prudence governed those responsible for the disaster.

The gas company had a force of workmen searching for the leak in the pipes all night, and at an early hour yesterday morning it was discovered in the mains on East Main Cross street. The ground being frozen, the escaping gas could not rise to the surface, and therefore followed the course of the pipes into the hotel building, where it accumulated.

In the investigation of the leak H. C. Baker, a plumber, was carrying a lantern, and a few minutes after he entered the building a heavy explosion occurred. Baker was burned quite painfully in the face, but not fatally.

All those injured by the explosion are in a fair way to recover.

The hotel has been closed and a force of workmen are clearing away the debris preparatory to at once rebuilding the wrecked portion of the house.

STOCKHOLDERS MAD.

Sensational Story Concerning the Monon Route.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20.—There is talk of applying for a receiver for the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road. Two directors of the road have resigned and the opinion prevails that other resignations will follow. The nature of the trouble is not known, but it is conjectured that the minority stockholders are displeased with the policy of the present management.

Some of the directors have espoused the cause of the "kickers," and clamor for the appointment of a receiver. The road is doing a large business, and the dissatisfied faction claim that under an economical management larger profits would be the rule. It is thought that a crisis will be reached in a few days, when a bill will be filed asking for an accounting and the appointment of a receiver. Officers of the road deny that a receiver will be applied for, but admit that a row is brewing in the directory.

CITIZENS' ALLIANCE

Will Meet in Cincinnati in National Convention.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 20.—Two hundred and fifty delegates, who have been attending the Citizens' Alliance convention in this city, have completed an organization and issued a call for a National convention to be held in Cincinnati between March 10 and 20, to organize a third party. The call issued at the Omaha convention was considered premature and the date was therefore changed.

The organization is intended to give Knights of Labor and other industrial organizations an opportunity of joining the people's movement.

National organizers were appointed as follows: Capt. C. A. Power, Terre Haute, Ind.; Ralph Benumont, Washington; Mrs. L. E. Lease, Wichita, Kan.; and Capt. S. F. Wood, Stevens, Kan., Kansas.

The name of the organization was changed to the Citizens' National Industrial Alliance.

Cincinnati's Mystery Unsolved.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20.—The mystery concerning the disappearance and rescue of the Frisch and Phillips children is deepening and puzzling the police. Some sensational hints are thrown out and efforts are being made by shrewd officers to get at the bottom of the case. They are working on an entirely new theory, and something interesting may develop within the next twenty-four hours. The statements that Drs. Evans and Fogel do not agree that the girl has been tampered with were erroneous. The doctors are fully agreed that there was such tampering. They are both recovering from the effects of the long starvation.

Fell Six Stories.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—James Burkhardt, a bricklayer, fell from the sixth story of the new Chittenden hotel yesterday afternoon. He was employed on the building, and having finished his day's work, had started to descend by way of a short ladder from the roof to the floor of the sixth story. He missed his footing and dashed down the elevator shaft, eighty-five feet to the ground. He was alive and conscious when reached by his companions, but it is thought that his injuries may be fatal.

Kuhns Pleads "Not Guilty."

TIFFIN, O., Jan. 20.—Marvin Kuhns, the Indiana desperado, was arraigned before Judge Ridgely yesterday on the charge of murdering W. L. Champen, at Fostoria, two months ago. He pleaded not guilty, and requested the judge to appoint George W. Loutitt, of Fort Wayne, Ind., to defend him. Kuhns says his wounds now give him but little trouble.

Ex-Governor Thayer Not Insane.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 20.—Ex-Governor Thayer's physicians contradict the rumor that he is insane. He is suffering from nervous prostration, but his mind is sound as ever.

AN ANARCHIST PLOT

Believed to Have Been Carried Out in Italy.

EXPLOSIONS OF DYNAMITE.

The Wealthy Class of Leghorn Looted by a Mob—Impossible to Learn the True State of Affairs—The Great Storm Still Raging Across the Atlantic Ocean. Other Foreign Dispatches.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—Telegrams of a most disturbing nature have been received here from Leghorn by persons in private life, it being understood that for the present the control of press dispatches has been placed under a censorship. According to the communications referred to, a number of dynamite cartridges were almost simultaneously exploded on Saturday in close proximity to the various houses of wealthy residents of Leghorn.

It is at the moment impossible to secure details, but it is reported that the outrages are attributed by the police to a well-planned Anarchist plot. The explosions, it is said, were to have been the signal for the inauguration of a riot, during the progress of which the portion of the city inhabited by the wealthy class was to have been looted.

Great excitement is reported to prevail at Leghorn. The alarming telegrams here referred to were received by persons who have relatives and friends in the Italian city. The latter are doing everything in their power to obtain additional particulars.

People Freezing.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—The frightful and phenomenal weather continues. Wolves and bears, driven from the woods by the intense cold and deep snows, are ravaging remote districts in France, and it is said that wolves have been killed in the suburbs of Cadix, Spain. Northern Africa is buried in snow, and in Tunis traffic is made impossible by the drifts, while the native tribes, unaccustomed to such weather, are said to be perishing in scores.

A severe gale still rages off the coast, and at Bordeaux many outbound steamers and other vessels have been obliged to anchor at Verden roads.

Terrible suffering prevails among the wretchedly poor in this city. Fires have been lighted in the streets to keep them from freezing to death, and the authorities are arranging to lodge and feed the homeless multitude.

Speculators Caught.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The reports of trouble in the Argentine Republic have had the effect of yesterday causing a fall of 14 per cent. in the securities of that country on the stock exchange in this city. It is rumored that some influential firms have become embarrassed because of the drop in prices.

Destitute Poor in London.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Gen. Booth, of the Salvation Army, has asked the lord mayor to permit the destitute poor of London to sleep in the various municipal buildings while the severely cold weather prevails, and that he, Gen. Booth, will undertake to feed them and preserve order.

Many People Frozen.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The weather in Great Britain is increasing in severity and reports of the loss of life from the extreme counties are coming in from all quarters.

WRECKED AND ROBBED.

Fifteen Masked Men Rob a Train on the Rio Grande Railroad.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Jan. 20.—At noon yesterday the train on the Rio Grande railroad between here and Point Isabel was wrecked and robbed by fifteen masked men. They placed obstructions on the track, derailed the engine, held up the passengers and got away with about $20,000 in Mexican money which was en route for shipment at Brazos by the steamboat Morgan to New Orleans. The ship's mail was also taken and passengers robbed of money and valuables. A brakeman was badly injured in the wreck. The sheriff said a posse was out scouring the country for trace of the robbers who are doubtless safe in Mexico now.

JOHN FINZER DEAD.

A Prominent Louisville Man Passes Away in Switzerland.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 20.—John Finzer, ex-president of the Louisville Leaf Tobacco exchange, proprietor of the Finzer Brothers' tobacco factory, a member of the Park commission, and a leading citizen, died Sunday in Berne, Switzerland, where he had gone for his health. The news was received by cablegram Monday morning, and has caused profound sorrow.

Two Violent Deaths.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20.—Two men met with violent deaths on the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yesterday in South Baltimore. Joseph Bollinger, a laborer, was struck and killed by an engine which was backing into the Garden station. His head was crushed in and he was also dismembered. Robert Collingsworth, a conductor of the Baltimore and Ohio, was killed on the trestle work near Reese's furnace, near Locust Point. He lived but ten minutes after the accident. Both legs were crushed off at the knees.

Practical Advice to Retailers.

We advise our readers who are compelled to pay more for their stock to be certain that their remuneration is commensurate with the amount of capital invested. Never mind if sales do decrease somewhat; it's better to do a small business on a paying basis than a large one on a losing basis.—Merchants' Review.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1891.

There has been enough shilly-shallying about this move to establish tobacco warehouses here in Maysville. Let's go to work and establish them.

If the proper effort is made, and made at once, the Tobacco Growers' Association will be selling the weed right here in Maysville by the 20th of February, or the 1st of March at the latest.

S. B. Ewins, the self-appointed dictator of the Farmers' Alliance, played a losing game when he lifted his voice against the Kentucky Growers' Association. The members of the Alliance ought to kick him out of the order.

MANY farmers are holding back waiting to see what Maysville will do to help establish warehouses here. Our citizens are perhaps as much interested in this matter as the growers, and all should unite in the present move.

SOME of the tobacco buyers of the county are throwing cold water on the growers' warehouse scheme. This should only serve to make the growers more enthusiastic and more determined in their efforts to bring the move to a successful termination.

This is the "golden opportunity" of the citizens of Maysville. A tobacco market successfully established here will bring thousands of dollars worth of trade to the city annually. The citizens of Maysville ought to subscribe at least $25,000 before the close of the week to make the warehouse a certainty.

A PROMINENT farmer of Nicholas County says he would rather give two dollars towards a tobacco warehouse in Maysville than to give one dollar to a warehouse at Louisville. If the matter was presented, in the right light, to the growers of the surrounding counties, there would be but little trouble in getting them to take stock in the enterprise.

No one is asked to give anything to the tobacco warehouse scheme, but everybody is asked to take stock. If the growers of this and surrounding counties all unite in this matter, it is claimed the stock will yield handsomer dividends than bank stock. It's an enterprise that will benefit the citizens of Maysville and the farmers who go in it in more ways than one.

GENERAL JOHN S. WILLIAMS, of Montgomery County, one of the largest tobacco growers in the State, says he will market his crop in Maysville, if warehouses are established here. Hundreds of that section will do likewise. Establish a good market here, and both Nicholas, Fleming and other surrounding counties will patronize it. The advantage to Maysville in having the trade directed to this point cannot be estimated.

"The advance in the price of window glass agreed upon by the American Window Glass Combination is 20 per cent," says the Circleville Wheelman and Democrat. "This news will be received with something like dismay by builders and householders; and as it has not been accompanied by any advance in the wages of glassworkers, the increased tax upon light will go altogether into the pockets of monopoly. The making of window glass was a profitable industry before the advance of duty made by the McKinley tariff; but now that a trust has been formed the profits will be inordinate."

The Jessamine Journal remarks that "the boys who have been reading dime novels and have become eager to go out West to kill Indians, had better start early or they will lose their chance. Soon there will be no Indians to kill. Our beneficent and truly Christian Government, after cheating the Indians out of their lands, breaking treaties with them, starving them by refusing rations which were justly due, and driving them from the Atlantic to the Pacific, are now shooting them down like deer, sparing neither women nor children, the aged or the invalid."

The emphatic testimony of General Miles is that the present troubles are a result of the wrongs done the Indians.

It is proposed to make the capital of the Warehouse Association $40,000 or $50,000. The association ought to market 20,000 or 30,000 hogheads annually. Say the warehouse fees are $3 a hoghead—$1 to be paid by the seller and $2 by the buyer. That would be from $75,000 to $100,000 annually as the association's profits. Of course the expenses would have to come out of this, but there would be big money left for the stockholders in the shape of dividends. And every farmer in this and surrounding counties ought to have some of the stock so he could share in the profits. Everybody can afford to subscribe. The shares are only $10 each. And bear in mind that the stock is to be paid in cash.

MRS. GROVER CLEVELAND

Leading a Charmed Life in New York City, Admired by Both Sexes.

Says the New York Sun: "The beautiful, ever-courteous, at all times affable Mrs. Cleveland leads a charmed life in New York. She keeps house in elegant style on Madison avenue and is courted by all whom she will deign to smile upon. She is banqueted at banquets, feted at feasts, sung over the wassail bowl and both idolized and idealized wherever she goes. It will be remembered that at the centennial of the inaugural ceremonies in New York two years ago it was Mrs. Cleveland who received the most flattering attentions bestowed upon any woman, the ladies throwing down their bouquets before her as she walked to the supper-room. This adulation was not then so much to be wondered at, as she was fresh from the White House and the odors of the flower-scented rooms hung about her. But as the time has worn on the girl-bride has shown that she could hold the interest of the people by her own magic without depending upon the glory of her husband's position. She moves to-day beloved of all. Men of years, maidens, society women and the jennette doves alike pronounce her socially faultless."

Churches and Preachers.

The St. Louis Republic pays this tribute to the police power of religion: "Go out on the frontier 500 miles beyond any church. Enter one of those new towns, the upgrowth of a night, see the devil's chapels that line the streets—brothels, gin mills and gambling dens, observe the residents; every man a walking arsenal, belted with bowie knives and revolvers. Then mark how, a little later, with the advent of Sunday schools and churches, those walking arsenals are reduced to a peace basis—how those devil's chapels one by one withdraw into the back streets and screen themselves from public view."

According to the religious census conducted by Dr. H. K. Carroll for the Federal Bureau, the number of titles of distinct religious bodies in the United States, nearly all of whom should be classed as Protestants, is 131. Fourteen of the leading Protestant groups are subdivided as follows:

	No. of Sects.	No. of Members.
Adventists.....	7	119,312
Baptists.....	15	3,974,589
Congregationalists.....	1	471,608
Episcopalians.....	2	439,612
Lutherans.....	1	1,669,612
Methodists.....	48	4,747,131
Mennonites.....	4	101,000
Moravians.....	1	1,219
Presbyterians.....	23	1,399,234
Quakers.....	3	83,930
Reformed.....	3	277,742
Unitarians.....	2	270,000
Universalists.....	1	266,500
Totals.....	73	13,679,576

The Protestants accord to the Roman Catholics 8,012,970, and to the Greek Catholics 10,000. The Roman Catholics claim for themselves 10,000,000—Exchange.

Electrical Street Railways.

Electricity as a street car motor is rapidly superseding other methods in Western cities, says the Scientific American.

Denver has already thirty miles of electrical street road in operation, traversing the city and reaching out in every direction to suburban points. The old cable and horse car companies are rapidly adopting what is apparently to be the motive power of the future for all city and suburban traffic. Several additional lines in Denver are in contemplation. Some are already in process of construction, notably the so-called Suburban line of fifteen miles and the Golden line of twenty-one miles. The Colorado Springs electrical main line, with branches, is twenty-two miles long. The various lines are doing a large and an apparently increasing and profitable business.

Circuit Court Notes.

John Fitznerahl was fined $50 and costs for maliciously shooting at Michael Kinney.

The trial of Wm. Price for shooting and wounding Joe Forsyth is in progress. Mr. Forsyth arrived yesterday from Atlanta to testify. He has not entirely recovered from his wound, and says he suffers a great deal at times.

Orangeburg Farmers.

The BULLETIN is asked to announce that a meeting of the farmers of Orangeburg precinct will be held at that place to-morrow (Wednesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, to discuss the present move to establish warehouses here in Maysville. All interested in any way—and that means every farmer—are urged to be present.

I GUESS SO.

CARD.

Editor of Bulletin:—In your Aberdeen news of yesterday, Monday 19th, a facetious individual signing "Wapacknail," in trying to dissuade the council, makes mention of the Wharfmaster in an extreme degree. Now, as I am the present incumbent of that office, I desire to say if the item in conjunction with the reference to me it is a falsehood as I never owed any coal merchant in the town for coal at any time, and if the merchant spoken of had known of any such transaction with any former wharfmaster, he had not a nice man for withholding the facts till this late day. The town books clearly show all transactions, and are open for inspection to those who may see enough to read them, which is doubtful of "Wapacknail." As to ring-bells and posts in the grade, will say there are six in the middle grade and the same number in the upper grade placed there by me and laid for by the town and not Mr. Flower. Respectfully,
J. C. SUTTON,
Wharfmaster, Aberdeen, Ohio.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLEICK.

It was quite cold on last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Rebecca Clary left Sunday for Slip-Up, to spend a few weeks among friends.

Those owing bills these days turn their backs on you as you approach them.

Last Friday was a model day—much on the order of spring time. Fine time for stripping tobacco.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson left Monday to visit friends in Maysville and at Dover, her old home.

The drummers are now moving around again, but it is a little dull and their collection slow.

Had Berry, of Lexington, was in our midst for several days trying to lay up some time losses. He left for home Friday.

Mrs. Jane Groves, who has been quite poorly for some days, is no better and it is thought her recovery is doubtful. She is eighty-four years old.

James Peed, of Fern Leaf, was here last week and was anxious to stay with his wife and their grandchild, Mr. Ewing, diphtheria being bad in his neighborhood.

Mrs. R. K. Myatt and family, of Shawhan Station, are here visiting her old friends. She thinks of moving to her father's in Missouri in a short time to make her future home.

Mrs. James Peed, of Germantown, was visiting her many friends in this vicinity last week. She once lived in this place and made many warm friends who are always glad to greet her.

He Don't Wear Socks.

Good mother, bring my overalls and lay 'em on the bed;
And get a little timothy to sprinkle on my head.
And put some tallow on my boots, for all the neighbors say
That I must start for Washin'ton afore another day.
You see I told you how we met 'em at
The old place, and how they made 'em and made 'em hunt their holes;
No, never mind them other things, jest lay 'em on the bed;
For my name is Jerry Simpson and I don't wear socks.

Fads.

The Spanish mantilla has been revived for evening wear.

Never allow a suspicion of starch to be used when your napkins are done up.

Yellow divides honors this season with pink, blue and cream for evening gowns.

Uniformity of arrangement is entirely banished from an artistic and comfortable room.

Cloth bonnets with feather and fur trimmings are to be seen in several shops.

Crepe du chine, richly embroidered, has not a rival in the way of material for evening gowns.

The foreign trade of the United States in manufactured furs amounts to $5,500,000 per annum.

There is a fancy just now for shoes of old English make, with very pointed toes and laces coming well over the instep.

In this country black is the only color for a full dress coat and trousers, but of late a disposition has been shown to imitate Paris dandies, who affect brighter color in neutral tints, such as vague blue and wine tints.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Causes of Death.

Shakespeare says: "Men have died and worms have eaten them, but not for love." Some one else says very few men die of age. Death is the result of disappointment, personal, mental, or bodily toil or accident. We often see the strong man cut down suddenly and the invalid living his four score years and ten. The fact is that the strong man uses up his strength and the weak one nurses the little given him. The passions certainly shorten life, and sometimes suddenly end it. "Choked," with passion is very often not an exaggeration. The lower animals which live temperate lives have their prescribed term of years. The horse lives 25 years, the ox 15 or 20, the dog 10 or 12, the rabbit 8 or 9, the guinea-pig 6 or 7. The numbers all bear proportion to the time the animal takes to grow to its full size, man is the only animal that fails to come up to the average. He ought to live 100 years, according to the physiological law, for 5 times 20 are 100, but he scarcely reaches the period of four times the growing period. To sum it all up, man is the most hard laboring and laborious of animals, also the most irregular and intemperate. He is irritable and often wears out, and is consumed by the fire of his own passions.

SCHOOL NOTES.

MAY-LICK—NO. 101 (COLORED)

The trustees of this school are Charles Hawkins, W. A. Jones and H. R. Green. They have a good school house, seemingly very comfortable, although rather crowded.

The teachers are W. H. Powers and J. W. H. Powell. No. of scholars, 133; attendance, 89. We heard excellent recitations in geography, history, arithmetic in his higher branches, also in Prof. Powell's new classes in reading in first, second and third reader. Blackboard exercises were very good. Writing also. Classes in spelling are doing well. The scholars in this school present a good appearance, are very orderly and attentive. They had the courtesy to arise when introduced to the Superintendent, and listened very attentively to his remarks. This school is progressing very satisfactorily.

WASHINGTON—NO. 102 (COLORED)

Here we found a very good school house, but badly located for play ground. The trustees are Moses Spencer, Alfred Lane, Charles Lane. The teachers are Miss Mary Bookam and Miss Belle Chew. This is a remarkably orderly school and deportment very good, and we were favorably impressed by the neat appearance of scholars. We heard very interesting recitations, in this school in geography, blackboard exercise, in arithmetic and other classes, all did well and all showed good training. These teachers are thoroughly qualified for their duties, and are conducting this very large school in a most satisfactory manner. No. of scholars, 102; attendance, 95.

HELENA—NO. 108 (COLORED)

This school is taught by Prof. McFarland, a very intelligent teacher. Here again we were struck with the courtesy of the whole school in arising from their seats to receive the Superintendent. This school has a full number of scholars, very attentive and orderly, and Prof. McFarland reports very favorably. The trustees are J. A. Griffith, John Small, George Wells. No. of scholars 45.

G. W. BLATTERMAN, Sup't.

A Noteworthy Exception.

From the Kimball (S. D.) Graphic: "While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other medicines; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity, in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature." FIERCE FLAMES.

Cannon & Co.'s Laundry and Bath Rooms Destroyed by Fire.

The Building Guttred By the Blaze. Damage Amounts to Several Thousand Dollars.

The most destructive fire that has visited Maysville since the Dodson building was burned occurred last night.

Just about 10 o'clock flames were discovered in Cannon & Co.'s laundry and bath rooms in the January building on east side of Sutton street, a few doors south of Second.

The Neptune's bell was the first to sound the alarm but it was followed closely by the Washington's and then by the Amazon's.

When night policeman Driscoll, Henry Ray and Wm. Martin reached the scene a few minutes later, the second and third stories were ablaze, and dense volumes of smoke were pouring out of the windows.

All the fire companies were soon on hand and they had several streams of water playing on the building in a very short time. But the hottest part of the fire seemed to be in the rear, and it was difficult to reach it from Sutton street. Finally a hose was taken through from Court street and another one through the hallway of the building adjoining the burning one on the south, and then the firemen fought with renewed energy. But the blaze was a stubborn one and the inflammable material within was due material for the fire. It required nearly two hours of hard work before the flames were finally extinguished.

The building is a three-story brick masonry structure, and that part occupied by the laundry was almost gutted. It is the property of Ex-Mayor January and was insured for $3,000 in the German American, Dr. Fleming agent, which will about cover the damage to the structure.

The laundry and bath rooms were established last spring by Mr. J. J. Cannon, who came here from Cincinnati. The company at present is composed of Mr. Cannon and Mr. Wm. Davis, and they are the heaviest losers by the fire. The machinery and outfit cost $5,500, and this does not include the cost of fitting it up. The machinery is a total loss, and the company carried but $3,000 insurance. They had one policy for $1,000 in the Liberty, W. R. Warder agent, and two policies for $1,000 each with Duley & Baldwin, $1,000 in the Fire Association of Philadelphia and $1,000 in the Springfield.

Mr. E. H. Thomas, the boot and shoe man, moved his stock yesterday into the room just south of the laundry, in the same building, and his goods were badly damaged by the water. His loss is placed at $500, which is fully covered by insurance, as he carried a policy for $1,000 in a company represented by Mr. G. S. Judg.

The building owned by Dr. Phillips just south of the one burned was slightly damaged. He is fully insured in Mr. Warder's agency.

Major Chenoweth, druggist, sustained slight damages to his stock from the water. He is insured.

It is not known how the fire originated. Mr. Davis had closed up half an hour before, and had just about reached his home in the West End when the alarm was sounded. Mr. Cannon left the laundry shortly before Mr. Davis, and he had been especially careful in fixing what fire there was under the boiler, so that it would not fall out. Those who first reached the building are positive the flames started on the second or third floor.

The company has been doing a thriving business, and the members, Messrs. Cannon and Davis, have the sympathy of the public in their loss. They will fit up another establishment as soon as they can arrange for a suitable building and new machinery. Mr. Cannon left this morning for Cincinnati to secure the necessary machinery. The fire will cause but little interruption to their business, as they have opened an office temporarily at Nelson's hat store on Second street, where their patrons can leave goods and call for packages.

They have twenty-nine agencies in surrounding towns, and a big lot of goods came in yesterday to be landed this week. Most of this was destroyed. Those who had any goods destroyed in the laundry are asked to leave their name at the new office at Nelson's.

The total damage done by the fire amounts to about $10,000, on which there is an insurance of over $7,000.

MR. CHARLES PEYCE, a native of Maysville, died yesterday at Cincinnati, after a lingering illness. He was a son of Mr. Louis Pearce, and was forty-three years old. He leaves one daughter, who is the wife of W. H. Harrison, managing editor of the Commercial Gazette. Deceased was a nephew of Mr. Charles B. Pearce, of the State National Bank.

"Suppose you are on a train going from Reading to Philadelphia. The thought strikes you that while in Philadelphia you will purchase a few articles for the folks at home. Eagle. Moral: Advertise.

ENGINEER HILTEBRUNNER, who was recently killed by the explosion of a locomotive on the N. & N. and M. V. road east of Mt. Sterling, was considered a careful employee, but it seemed that fatalities pursued him. He ran into a construction train at one time and killed eight men. At another time he ran into a vehicle at Mt. Sterling and killed four people. Some time since he killed a woman and child in the same manner. All these killings were accidents which it is claimed were on his part and he never intended.

JAMES S. WARDER, the principal actor in the deplorable affair at Chattanooga, Sunday in which he killed his son-in-law, wounded his daughter and was finally shot himself, was a student at Ward & Kayser's seminary at Washington, this county, along in 1855-57, and was considered a young fellow of much promise. He afterwards read law in Mt. John G. Hickman's office and is remembered by many of our citizens.

A combination of whisky and pistols will defeat any case of talent or merit ever possessed by mortal. Liquor got the best of him, and the terrible tragedy Sunday is the result.

ANTI-EVICTIONISTS.

Another Secret Society of Farmers in Southwestern Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 20.—It is understood here that an auxiliary to the Farmers' Alliance has been organized in southwestern Kansas, the object of which is mutual protection from loan and investment companies.

There has been a growing inclination to have something done among Alliance members to prevent the foreclosure of mortgages and subsequent sale of farms on account of non-payment of interest, and this feeling has become so intense that it has at last resulted in the formation of this organization, the members of which are bound by oath to go to the assistance of any member who is in danger of losing his property through the action of parties holding mortgages.

Already this movement has extended over the entire southwestern part of the state, and the members have twice signified their readiness to aid a distressed brother. A case in point has occurred in Kingston county when an eviction was made of James C. Dooley, who had mortgaged his farm, and, owing to the failure of crops, had not been able to pay his interest for the last two years. His farm was sold and bought in the investment company, who proceeded to put a renter on the place.

The Dooley family was turned out. The eviction was not interfered with, but as soon as the sheriff went away the renter received a note telling him that it would not be safe in the house that night. The renter left. Within an hour Dooley and his family were back in their old quarters. Several Alliance members of the legislature, when interviewed, acknowledged that such an organization undoubtedly existed.

STUDENTS FROM SIAM.

Six Young Men to be Sent to Westminster College, Wilmington, Pa.

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 20.—The King of Siam will soon send six youths from his kingdom to Westminster college in this city where they are to be educated. They are to become physicians. They are chosen from the poorer classes, and the expenses of their tuition are to be borne by the Siamese government. The plan of sending young men to England to be educated is to be tried by the Siamese but has not been a success. It was found that the young men sent to Europe fell into all manner of dissipation. Usually they were the sons of princes and had plenty of money.

Engineers May Strike.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 20.—Grand Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, arrived here yesterday and sought a conference with General Manager Bradbury, of the Lake Erie and Western, in regard to the request of the engineers for an increase of pay. Mr. Bradbury said he had a contract with the engineers and, after several hours' discussion of the demand, flatly refused to make any advance and declined to change the schedule in any way that would bring about more expenses to the company. Mr. Arthur made no threats as to what the result will be, but one of the engineers said the company would hear something before very long. Should the engineers strike the other trainmen will go out also.

Firemen Fighting the Telegraph.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 20.—The Postal Telegraph company, which has recently extended its lines from Indianapolis to this place and is nearly into St. Louis, is having considerable trouble in Clay county, owing to opposition on the part of a few farmers this side of Brazil, whose land fronts on the road along which the company has strung its wires. The farmers claim that the company's men cut limbs from the trees when they were building the line, and they have retaliated by cutting down telegraph poles and wires.

Boomers Preparing to Move.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—Advices from the northern border of the Cherokee strip are to the effect that the movement to invade the strip is assuming vast proportions. June 20 has been set as the day for the general invasion, but at present the boomers are going into the strip every day in large numbers for the purpose of picking out claims. At one point alone 3,000 boomers have assembled, and are anxiously awaiting the much longed-for signal to enter the strip.

Postoffice Building Burned.

CANTON, O., Jan. 20.—A fire yesterday morning at Osnaburg, near here, totally destroyed the postoffice building occupied by Schaefer & Company, shoe dealers, and the house of a miner named Hale. The town narrowly escaped total destruction and the fire department of this city was called on for aid. The 20-year-old son of Hale threw two small children from a second-story window, then jumped to the ground himself escaping with his life.

Feeble-Minded Woman Fatally Burned. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Mary Pernar, a feeble-minded woman 88 years old, was fatally burned yesterday morning. She escaped the vigilance of the family for a few moments and pulled a wire screen from the grate. Her clothes caught fire from the coals, and in an instant she was completely enveloped in flames. When the fire was extinguished she was so badly burned that portions of her flesh fell from her body.

Embezzler Pardoned.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—President Harrison has pardoned out of the penitentiary here John M. McKee, received from Toledo, Jan. 3, 1890, on a five years' sentence, for embezzling the funds of a National bank.

Death From a Fall.

BLANCHESVILLE, O., Jan. 20.—Christopher Anding, Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad house carpenter at Chillicothe, stepped off the Hillsboro train, fell on the track and was killed instantly.

Hanged Herself With a Clothes Line.

CANTON, O., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Hudson Harold, of Lima, hanged herself Sunday, using a clothes line thrown over the limb of a tree. Domestic trouble is the alleged cause. She was 85 years old.

A Boston Woman's Errand Butler.

A butler who can "bottle" as well as the one in the farce is the requisite of one family returning early to town, and an advertisement brought a serious, well bred black man who stipulated that he could take the place for one year only.

"But if you like the place and we like you we shall hope to keep you," said Mrs. X, graciously.

"No, ma'am," said the applicant, "next fall I shall have money enough to begin my theological course."

So this year the X's will be served by a future minister whose English is as correct as his principles.—Boston Transcript.

To Do Away with "Old Maids."

Gen. Booth, the commander-in-chief of the English Salvation army, is an earnest social reformer. One of the practical methods of a redistribution of social forces, in his opinion, is a grand matrimonial agency, conducted by fit persons, through whose intervention thousands of homeless men all over the world might become known to the thousands of spinsters who would make the best of wives, but who are wasting their higher possibilities for want of a chance to utilize them. Gen. Booth expects to be laughed at, but is sure that his beneficent plan is feasible and certain of accomplishment.—Harper's Bazar.

Quitted.

"What do you intend to do with your boy, Tom?"

"I'll try to make him editor of a daily newspaper."

"Good! Has he shown any literary tastes?"

"No, but I've never known him to be satisfied with anything in his life."—Puck.

Miss Helen Gould a Skillful Sewer.

Miss Helen Gould sews, and sews beautifully. The daughter of the Wizard of Wall street finds it a pleasure to embroider her undergarments. She could easily find a seat in a dressmaker's workshop should it ever become necessary by some peculiar freak of fortune for her to do so.—New York Journal.

The total number of stars, of which some knowledge may be obtained by the appliances now available, is from 40,000,000 to 50,000,000. Of these only about 6,000 are visible to the naked eye, equally divided between the two hemispheres.

Mechanical Photo Play.

Stenard Bonnet said: "Nowadays it is not worth any one's while to take up public performance as a profession; things are so different from what they were when I was a boy. Then no one ever thought of giving himself entirely to it, unless he had a natural and most unusual-sounding gift for the piano. In the present day the advance in the mechanical [sic] the means which bring one to a certain point is so great that numbers of clever people who have but little natural talent for music become players through a system of admirable training."—Musical Experiences.

The "House of Seven Gables," which Nathaniel Hawthorne made famous, is still to be seen on Turner street, Salem, Mass. It was built in 1662, but received many alterations by its successive owners, until it became the curious structure which attracted Hawthorne's attention, and was, at one time, his home.

School Building Burned.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—Shaw's school, one of the public schools of this city, was totally destroyed by fire at 10:30 a. m. The 150 children were in the building when the fire was discovered in the basement by the principal, Mrs. Mary Manrie. She ran to all the rooms, ordered recess, and in three minutes the school was emptied and not a child was hurt. Two minutes afterward the flames had possession of the first floor.
